Item 4: Harassment. Texting me late at night and questioning my texts to our children is harassment.
If its late at night, try not to be angry. If you are angry late at night, don't call or send me (likely anyone) texts until morning. I love you. I can't understand your animosity to me but i dont need to. I tried to make you happy and still do.
I believe iam being more than fair, and i believe you are treating me more than unfair. I am biased but highly self conscious and aware. Your verbal and written judgement is taken in perspective with the understanding of your past treatment to me.
Maybe you dont realize you abuse me, but you do.
Maybe you didnt realize you hit, bit, insulted and grait me, but you did.
Maybe you dont realize what else you did, but i do.

Item 5: Future. I still (foolishly) expect you to realize some of the issues you can help with hopefully before it really hits you.

Hi Tom. ok np I will try to contact you earlier. It upsets me that you won't take or return my calls. but thanks for responding now. Yes I think you should pay home insurance. Arent you going to sell that house? I will create a list or spreadsheet of all the kids expenses as they are really adding up. Also I need your Vanguard account numbers. I've been calling to tell you I finally got Bella into a really good pediatricians care. They are a bit concerned with how small she is & are ordering lab work & xray to ensure she is ok & if any treatment is needed.

Me 12:48 PM, Oct 3

You might not remember, but you texted that keeping the house for the kids might be a good idea.
Please dont complain to me about finances...the way i see it, you ruined our (my)financial future, and you are the one with multipke financial security blankets. I see what you are doing financially and emotionally as a part of some of the problems of society.

Very busy weekend, just text when u can

Saturday, October 11, 2025

so I released 2 of our children to your custody & neither 1 of them are with you??

where is Gibson 9:44 PM

Stop
Gib is upstairs where my phone was.
He is trying to sleep.
Do not text or csll me at night.
Good night.
9:45 PM

he's trying to sleep at 9 pm on a Saturday? he should be able to talk to his Mother 9:49 PM

Im not preventing that, but he appears asleep and said he was trying to sleep when my phone woke him
Please do not call or text me in evenings unless emergency.
Not calling you is not emergency.
Good night.

Hello,
Item 1: I have asked that you not contact me in the evening unless emergency for multiple reasons.
You have been waking me up lately as I've needed some evening rest lately.
If you would like verbal communication or immediate texts, please indicate before 6pm.
Item 2: Rent: i pay the taxes, insurance is due today and you are getting $600 extra in child support each month.
Do you want me to buy a house tomorrow and leave Franklin Park?
If so, all the above in Item 2 need to change.
Note: You or realize you are making me pay for the house? already paid for us, right?
Item 3: Expenses. Send the receipts or give a copy to Jay to hand to me.
I still need your cooperation with health receipts including the 12-2024 Cerone DDS visit.
Item 4: Harassment. Texting me late at night and questioning my texts to our children is harassment.
